Dear Rob:

Thank you so much for your participation in Saturday's WTC Responder Day. In addition to the work you continually perform on behalf of the responders, we just like hanging out with you! And meeting your dad was fun, as well.

Hopefully, due in large part to your work, you will be called on for an additional couple of years to ensure that every eligible responder files the WTC-12. (You may grow to regret your good work, since really what it does is spawn additional work.)

Seriously, thank you for always being there when the responders or the program need you.

Best,

Mitchell Bass
