GREY & GREY, PLLC

Grey & Grey is recognized as a leader in Workers' Compensation law. Our attorneys have successfully represented clients before the New York State Workers' Compensation Board, the Appellate Division, and the Court of Appeals, breaking new ground and establishing a right to benefits not only for our clients but for tens of thousands of injured workers across the state.

We played a key role in drafting legislation, including a chapter providing benefits to World Trade Center responders. We regularly publish articles, lecture to bar and union groups, and educate the public and other lawyers about Workers' Compensation law.

Our attorneys hold leadership roles in state and local organizations, including the Workers' Compensation Alliance, the Injured Workers Bar Association, the New York Committee for Occupational Safety & Health, the Advisory Board for the Selikoff Centers for Occupational Health at Mount Sinai, and the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire Memorial.

We provide education to unions and organizations on worker rights, occupational injury or illness rights, and available benefits. We are frequently consulted about contract language regarding work-related disability, the relationship between various laws and collective bargaining agreements, and issues specific to certain unions and their members.
